

DOUBLE HEADER

Won by Logan on Labor Day from the

ALL-PROFESSIONALS

Of Columbus. Both Games
Shut-Outs.

The fans of Logan and vicinity surfeited, Sunday and Monday. The "All-Professional" team, of Columbus, advertised for the game Sunday afternoon and a double-header Monday, while not fully up to the expectations of its prowess, proved to be a good strong aggregation—the best, probably, that has played in Logan this season. The visiting team was alleged to be made up of strictly professional players, which was not true in every particular. It did, however, embrace some professionals, among them Francis, the Andersons, and Jones, and included some of Columbus, crack amateurs, notably Burk, their pitcher, who was in the box for the first and third games, and who is regarded as one of the foremost amateur twirlers of the Capital City.

Logan was not especially strengthened for the series. Barry, who played here in 1904 and 1905, arrived in town in time to get on the line-up. Freddie Martin, of Longstreth, who has been a member of the Logan team practically all this season, was on hand. Reinhard, the little Columbus man who has been with Logan for the past three weeks, pitched the first game for them, Sunday afternoon. Best of all, Johnny Buntz, who was laid up with a broken thumb a few weeks ago, was back in the game with strength renewed, albeit his right hand was still bandaged. His work throughout the series was in Class A, nevertheless.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

There was scattered hitting on both sides, Reinhard's support not being at all up to the standard. The locals scored one run in the first, Camp leading off with a single, and another in the second, on errors. The visitors opened up in the third, after two outs, Riley binged, and a low fly by Anderson, following, was muffed by Dill. Bennet pounded out a buzzer to center, which Dill slightly misjudged, running under it, Riley and Anderson scoring. Bennet made three bases and scored, on a wild throw. The next two innings were uneventful, with the exception of a score by Anderson in the fifth, on a long hit which bounded out of Camp's hands, and a single by Bennet. Rain stopped the play for a time, after the fifth, but it was a hopeless case. The visitors loomed up in the last inning with two hits, which aided by a succession of errors, gave them the game, eight to five. Beck's work on first was excellent all through the game, and the fielding generally was good, but the crowd was undoubtedly disappointed. They did not see the exhibition they expected.

FIRST GAME, MONDAY.

Logan's line-up was changed in several particulars, Barry going to center, Martin to third, and Stultz on second, while Stiers occupied the box, for the first time in several weeks. Stiers pitched one of the games of his life, allowing but three hits, one of which was slightly scratchy. Bennet, for the visitors, also pitched an elegant game, giving five hits.

It was a shut-out game on both sides till the fifth inning, when Martin scored. Camp followed suit in the sixth. Logan was pulled out of a hole in the first of the ninth, however, by quick work by Buntz at short. Anderson singled, with nobody out. Bennet put a grounder at white heat to Buntz, who gathered it in and made the first assist in a double to Stultz, on second bag, who in turn threw out Bennet at first; one of the quickest double plays ever made in Logan Park. Jones' long two-bagger to left, which followed, proved harmless, as the next man up did easy. There was remarkable fielding on both sides in this game.

SECOND GAME MONDAY.

The third and last game of the series was, to put it mildly, a top-notch. Each team had one game to its credit, and the most strenuous efforts were, naturally, put forth to win the deciding one of the three. Logan's line-up was left unchanged, except that Emrick went in the box to succeed Stiers. Big Riley, of the Columbus team, was transferred from his home position in left to first base, and a few other shifts made. Burk again pitched.

Young Emrick, of Gore, was a bunch of surprises. The crowd voiced its astonishment when he entered the box, after Stiers' brilliant bull work of the previous game, and with Reinhard on the bench. Doubts were rife as to the "kid's" sufficiency to face the experienced sluggers of Kelley's caravan. It is only fair to say that Emrick pitched one of the cleanest and best games of the season. His graceful delivery, good speed and curves, and above all the extreme sang froid with which he fielded his position, made a distinct impression, and he was applauded to the echo. Of his eight chances, he made good to first on all but one, and that was a high bounce over his head. His last assist was one of the fastest maneuvers of the game.

FIRST INNING

Anderson struck out. Bennet grounded, Emrick to Beck, and Jones fled to Webb in left.

Camp led off with a ringing two base hit. Webb fanned, and Barry popped a leaguer to Bennet at short. Camp was thrown out at third in an attempt to steal.

SECOND INNING

E. Riley struck out, and Francis grounded to Emrick. Skalla binged for two bases. Burk hit a clean one to left center, and Skalla, attempting to score, was put out at home by a long, beautiful throw from Barry, in center, to Canty. The ball was placed exactly in Canty's hands.

Beck grounded, and Riley, on first, muffed the throw. Martin sacrificed, Burk to Riley. Stultz grounded, Bennet to Riley, and Buntz walked and stole second. Canty fled to first.

THIRD INNING

Edwards popped high to Beck, G. Riley grounded, Emrick to Beck, and Anderson's fly back of short was gathered in by Buntz.

Emrick fanned, and Camp and Webb both fled high to right field.

FOURTH INNING

Bennet was passed to first, Emrick's only base on balls. Jones struck out. E. Riley's grounder bounded high over Emrick's head, and he fumbled it just enough to give both runners their bases. Francis fled to Stultz, and Skalla pounded a liner straight to Emrick's hands.

Barry grounded to Riley, at first, and Beck struck out. Martin's easy grounder to Burk was thrown wild to first, giving him two bases, and he stole third while Burk stood in the box with the ball in his hands. Stultz fanned.

FIFTH INNING

Burk fled to Webb. Edwards and G. Riley struck out.

Buntz got first on Riley's miff of the assist, and died at second in an effort to steal. Canty walked, getting another base on a passed ball. Emrick fanned, and Camp popped straight up to catcher Riley.

SIXTH INNING

Anderson and Jones grounded, Emrick to Beck, and Bennet fled to Barry.

Webb struck out, Barry fled to Francis, and Beck ditto to Bennet.

SEVENTH INNING

E. Riley grounded, Stultz to Beck. Francis fled to Beck, and Skalla fanned.

Martin grounded to Burk, and died easy. Stultz and Buntz hit cleanly for a base apiece. Canty was thrown out at first by Jones, advancing Stultz and Buntz. Emrick grounded, Bennet to Riley.

EIGHTH INNING

Burk made first on a momentary fumble of his grounder by Stultz, and Edwards singled. Things looked shady for Logan, with two on bases and no outs. G. Riley bunted toward third, and Martin met the ball half-way in. Meanwhile Burk was doing a sprinting stunt toward third, with Buntz leading him by a neck. A quick assist from Martin gave Johnny the put-out of Burk. Buntz played hard to first to catch Riley, and Edwards raced madly toward third on the play. A fast and true return from Beck to Martin caught him two feet off the bag, and the crucial moment was over, through as swift and beautiful a double-play as ever graced the game. Anderson struck out, retiring the side.

SIXTH INNING

Bennet grounded, Martin to Beck, and Jones singled. E. Riley grounded to Stultz, and Francis to Emrick, with similar results.

Beck connected for a clean base hit, and Martin deftly sacrificed him to second. Stultz fled to Bennet. Beck made a grand clean steal of third, and a merry bingle by Buntz over short brought him home—the one and only run of the game. It was one of the most glorious finishes ever witnessed in Logan, and the run was earned, without a blemish.

A Big Success.

The one big event of Cincinnati's Fall Festival was the opening last Sunday of the New Olympic Theatre. A more auspicious theatrical event has not been chronicled anywhere in this country and when it is taken into consideration that this beautiful modern playhouse is devoted to European and American Greater Vaudeville, it must be admitted that something extraordinary exists in this more fertile of amusements fields. Cincinnati's of every rank were there in force at every performance; the masses were interested, and the banker and the preacher rubbed elbows with the street gamin. The toilets worn by the ladies in attendance at the first performance received unusual attention. The surrounding, the furnishings, the everything about the New Olympic is beyond description, likewise the unparalleled talent that Manager Cleveland presented. He promised the biggest and best entertainment ever seen in Cincinnati, and he kept his word. The enormous crowds appreciated everything.

For week beginning matinee Sunday, September 9th, John W. Ransome will be seen in his latest and most lifelike impersonations of Wm. Jennings Bryan. The big novelty feature of the week will be Ralph Johnstone, the Acrobatic Aerial Cyclist that astounded New Yorkers last season at the Hippodrome. Al Coin's Pantomime Dogs May Ward, the Daintiest Sou-brette in Vaudeville, and W. J. O'Hearn's big spectacular production "A Romance of Killarney," are all faces and features entirely new to Cincinnati. On the same bill is the Grand Opera Trio, Haley & Meehan, black face singers and dancers; all these together with Filson & Errol and several other big numbers will go to make up a programme that will excel last week's bill.

He Knows 'Em.

(Cincinnati Advance.) One of our exchanges which evidently has a goodly list of delinquents, gets off the following:

"It takes all kinds of people to make a world. There's the fellow who signs for the paper and says he will pay for it later; he reads it two or three years, doesn't pay a cent, gets the postmaster to mark it 'refused,' and fires it back at the editor. Would you know our opinion of such a critter? There's no language to express it, unless somebody has invented a new dictionary."

"There's yet another fellow; he is impervious to duns; they have no effect on him; hide or skull is as thick as the skin of a rhinoceros; if he isn't dishonest it's hard to think he means well; and his silence is terribly distressing to the editor. If you owe us for a year or more, we should like to have it. Anything wrong about that? And we want you to stay with us, too."

A great opportunity, September 10th.
